Shaping the Hearts & Minds of Young Children

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

This child fast asleep looks so warm and content as I watch over her bed.

But I need to think back on the day we spent to all I did and said.

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

Did she feel safe and know that I care?

Did I say the things that made her feel loved?

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

For my life and my words form the image of the person she will someday become.

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

We're building temples for Jesus to live in; rooms warm and welcome where He'll reside.

These children are our own but someday when they're gone, we pray they'll be the temples where Jesus will abide.

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

Lord, help us to build a foundation of trust
knowing that we love them so.

With walls of our faith that will stand against the winds of doubt that blow.

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

Let your love be the roof that covers their lives and protects them from rains of defeat.

Help me mold in they minds windows where the light of Your salvation will stream.

Building Temples for Jesus to Live In

We're building temples for Jesus to live in; rooms warm and welcome where He'll reside.

These children are our own but someday when they're gone, we pray they'll be the temples where Jesus will abide.

Solomon's Temple

- A magnificent structure
- People were in awe of its beauty
- How many people marveled at its foundation?

Now Solomon had 70,000 transporters, and 80,000 hewers of stone in the mountains, besides Solomon's 3,300 chief deputies who were over the project and who ruled over the people who were doing the work. Then the king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with cut stones.

1 Kings 5:15-18 (NASB)
